

Tomorrow, 2:30 pm: Solidarity event for Ukraine in the courtyard of the main building

The university management invites to a solidarity event for 4 March in the courtyard of the main building, Unter den Linden 6. The event will begin at 2:30 pm. For infection control reasons, all participants are asked to wear FFP2 masks throughout the event.

The address by the acting president of HU, Peter Frensch, will be followed by an artistic program. Diana and Oleg Yanushkevych from Ukraine, Veranika Kruhlova, an activist from Belarus, and Katharina Goebel from the Documentary Theater Berlin will perform music led by Marina Schubarth from Ukraine. In addition, the International Affairs Department will be on hand to provide information about funding opportunities and assistance.

Friday, 4 March, 2:30 pm
Inner courtyard of the main building
Unter den Linden 6

Latest news on the topic

Video: Yoan Vilain addresses students and scholars from Ukraine and Russia

Yoan Vilain, head of the International Department together, speaks in this early edition of "Freitag nach eins..." in the video to the students and teachers from Ukraine and Russia, summarizes the current events and invites to show solidarity together.

Watch video on YouTube

Philipp Schwartz Initiative: Application deadline for Ukrainian researchers extended

Universities have the opportunity to submit applications for 24-month postdoctoral fellowships for vulnerable researchers for the 11th consecutive year. The application deadline for vulnerable and refugee researchers from Ukraine has been extended to 18 March and the nomination process has been simplified. Further measures are in preparation.

Learn more about the Philipp Schwartz Initiative

Invitation: Information event for Ukrainian (young) scientists and researchers on 11 March

For 11 March, the Vice President for Research, Christoph Schneider, together with the International Affairs Department, the Service Center Research and the Humboldt Graduate School, invites Ukrainian (junior) scientists and researchers to a joint exchange on advising and support services at Humboldt-Universität. The event will take place online on Zoom and will start at 10:15 am.

Learn more about the event and participate

Collected: Numerous relief efforts for Ukraine

For Ukrainian students and researchers, Humboldt-Universität offers assistance and organizes further support and scholarship programs together with other academic institutions. The topic page "Humboldt-Universität stands with Ukraine" bundles offers and actions initiated at HU or by its students and staff and provides an overview of the possibilities to get involved with Ukrainians.

Go to the topic page

Reaction: Cooperation with Russian partner institutions suspended

The Presidential Board of HU has decided to suspend all current cooperation agreements with Russian partners in research and teaching until further notice. In doing so, Humboldt-Universität distinguishes between institutions and individuals. This means: For Russian students in Bachelor, Master or PhD programs at HU these measures have no consequences - they are students of HU.

Read press release about cooperation stop

Reading tip: News from the Institute for Slavic Studies

The student online magazine "novinki" presents new publications, authors and literary and cultural events from Eastern, Central and Southeastern Europe. These days, the authors are positioning themselves against the war in Ukraine with a special page.

Read online magazine "novinki"

Click here to unsubscribe

Graphic: Mariana Bulaty

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin
Unter den Linden 6
10099 Berlin
Deutschland

E-Mail: interne-kommunikation@hu-berlin.de

www.hu-berlin.de