

HUMBOLDT- TAG DER LEHRE 26. APRIL 2023

Humboldt-Day of Teaching and Learning: Teaching Mission Statement & Collaborative Learning

This year's Humboldt-Day of Teaching and Learning will take place on 26 April and will focus on the teaching mission statement, which has been in the making since the beginning of the year as part of a broad participation process. In a joint opening, Niels Pinkwart, Vice-President for Academic Affairs, and representatives of the Editorial Board will summarise the state of the discussion on the Teaching Mission Statement for all participants. Afterwards, the actual work will take place at the institutes and faculties, where discussions will be decentralised in various formats. Afterwards, the impressions will be collected and discussed in a framework event. The ceremonial conclusion will be the award ceremony for the Humboldt-Universität's Teaching Award 2022, which will be presented for "Collaborative Learning and Teaching".

The Humboldt-Day of Teaching and Learning is a hybrid event where the opening, closing and ceremonial acts can be followed both in person and via Zoom. The decentralised event will be held partly in person and partly online.
