

Committee elections will take place on 12 December

Members of Humboldt-Universität can cast their vote within the framework of academic self-administration: Important decisions on research, teaching and studies are made in the HU's central and decentralised committees, some of which will be newly elected in December.

The following elections will take place on 12 December:

- Faculty Council of the Faculty of Arts and Humanities
- Faculty Council of the Faculty Language, Literature and Humanities
- Faculty Council of the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration
- Council of the Professional School of Education
- Council of the Centre for British Studies

To be re-elected:

- Committee for the election of the full-time Women's and Equal Opportunities Officers and their deputies for the status groups of female university lecturers and academic staff
- Council of the Berlin Institute for Islamic Theology for the status group of employees for technology, service and administration

Note:

The re-election of the committee for the election of the full-time Women's and Equal Opportunities Officers and their deputies for the status groups of female university lecturers and academic staff will take place at the respective institutions, in contrast to what was reported in the Humboldt Info on 28 November, the events will take place at the respective institutions. In the main building, room 1053B, west atrium, only the eligible female employees of the central university administration will vote.
