

Sports and Recreation for alumni at the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

1. What is „Sports and Recreation“?

The alumni office works together with the central unit Sports and Recreation (Hochschulsport) to make the university's sports programme accessible for alumni of Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin. Join in at staff rates and participate in any offered sports class you like.

Here is an overview of the current sports programme offered by the Sports and Recreation office. (Hochschulsport)

2. How to register

If you want to participate in Sports and Recreation you have to be registered in the Alumni-Portal. Once you are a registered alumnus/ alumna you can print out the certificate.

To choose the sports class of your preference, please look up the classes on the Sports and Recreation website. When chosen, follow the instructions until you get redirected to the registration through the Reserve- button („Buchen“-Button).

Now you'll be asked to fill in the form and choose between multiple categories. Please choose "HU-Alumni" as your status and bring your alumni certificate to every class.

3. How do I print out an alumni certificate via the Alumni-Portal?

Please print out your own certificate to take part in activities at the Hochschulsport. You need to be registered in the Alumni-Portal. Link: Alumni-Portal der Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

After your registration please follow the steps below:

1. Log in and go to personal data. (Persönliche Daten)
2. Please fill in your current information.
3. Do not forget to upload a profile picture for identification.

Choose the function "Print out" in your browser to print the certificate and don't forget to bring it to your HU sports classes.

We hope you enjoy Sports and Recreation at the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin
